THE BUNCOMBE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Quarterly Meeting of the Society was held on Saturday last, and we are happy in being able to state that it was one of the most interesting we have attended for many years.

Roads, Gardens, and The Most Profitable Crops for this country, were the subjects talked over and socially discussed.

Mr. Woodfin brought to the attention of the Club the fact that Corn and Apples brought the same price in our market.—This was not news to any one present, but Mr. W. forcibly reminded the Society that while corn costs more than fifty cents per bushel to produce, and by the constant cropping of our lands in corn it impoverished the soil, apples were an almost certain crop in this country, of finer quality than those produced in any other section, cost almost nothing to raise, did not impoverish the soil, and produced six times as many bushels to the acre as corn He was surprised that so many Farmers did not pay more attention to fruit culture.—An acre of ground set out in apple trees, 33 feet apart, will contain 480 trees. During the time these trees are coming to maturity the ground can be cultivated in crops that will benefit the soil and remunerate the farmer, so that but little time or land is lost. In a few years the trees will produce from 5 to 10 bushels of superior Apples each annually. Taking the lowest figure of production, and we have 240 bushels, which, at 50 cents, will be worth $120. Thus one acre planted in apple trees, will produce an annual crop, without other labor and expense than is necessary to gather it worth $120, while to raise that amount from corn would require the cultivation of at least six acres, and will cost every year more than the corn will bring in the market.

This was putting the matter plainly before our Farmers, and as dollars and cents govern them, they cannot fail to see their true interest from two standpoints, viz: Apples will bring more money to their pockets, and, what is equally as important, under our present circumstances, require no other labor than the farmer can obtain with in his own family.

We will add one more idea to Mr. Woodfin's: The fine apples raised in Western North Carolina will always command double the price of corn in the Southern markets. At this time those markets are filled with Northern apples, greatly inferior to ours, which sell at from $2 to $3 per bushel, and it costs but a trifle more to ship a bushel of apples than a bushel of corn. When our Railroads are finished the crop from two acres of Apple Trees will be worth more annually than the crop from fifty acres of corn, and further, now is the time to set out an Apple Orchard. In our next we will give our plan of preparing the ground and planting the trees.

From this time we shall embrace every opportunity to induce our farmers to turn their attention to cultivating the grasses, stock raising and Fruit culture, believing they are the true sources from whence will spring our future prosperity and wealth.—Nature appears to have marked those productions as peculiarly adapted to this soil, climate and locality.

ANECDOTES OF ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

On a certain occasion Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, was engaged in a political discussion with Hon. Benjamin F. Hill, of that State, when the latter charged him with saying that he (Stephens) could eat Judge Cone for breakfast, himself (Mr. Hill) for dinner, and Governor Cobb for supper. To which Mr. Stephens quietly replied: "I never said it; but if I had, the arrangement of the meals would have been somewhat different. I should not have taken Mr. Hill at dinner, where he has placed himself, that being the heartiest meal of the day. In fact, I should prefer him for supper, in accordance with that wise rule of medicine which prescribes a light diet to sleep on!"

At another time Mr. A. R. Wright, of Georgia, is said to have drawn the fire of the "great Georgian" in the following way: Mr. Stephens, at the time of the great Know-Nothing conflict in the South, was accompanied by a favorite dog named Rio, and the intelligent animal was almost as well known on the hustings as the statesman. Mr. Wright, at the close of a political speech, turned to Mr. Stephens and said: "Sir, I demand a list of your appointments. I intend that the people shall have information. I want to know when and where you are to speak, for I intend to dog you all around this Congressional district."

"Then," retorted Mr. Stephens, pointing his long thin finger to his dog sleeping on the stand at his feet, and lifting his fife-like voice to its highest note—"then I shall send Rio home. One dog at a time is enough!"

Among the thousands who have read the speech of Vice President Stephens, of Georgia, against secession, made Nov. 14, 1860, there are probably few who have heard of an amusing incident that followed it. At the close of the speech the leader of the Opposition party, Hon. Robert Toombs, arose, and after complimenting Mr. Stephens as one of the purest patriots, moved that the meeting give three cheers for him and adjourn, which was done. Governor Herschel V. Johnson, who was present, met Mr. Toombs on their return to the hotel, and said to him in substance: "Sir, your action to-night, coming from so prominent a secessionist, deserves all praise, and I for one cannot forbear to congratulate you upon such handsome conduct and admirable behavior."

Toombs put on that droll look which always precedes his best hits, and said dryly, "Yes, I always behave myself at a funeral."

An overgrown political opponent once undertook to sneer at the diminutive size of Mr. A. H. Stephens, and said, "I could put a little salad oil on you, and swallow you whole." To which Mr. Stephens at once replied, "And if you did you would have more brains in your bowels than you ever had in your head."

TAMMANY HALL, NEW YORK.—The transformation of Tammany Hall has been completed. The "Tammany Amusement Company" has secured a lease of the building, at a yearly rent of $25,000, and remodeled its interior at an expense of $75,000. The large hall where the Convention of last July met is made a grand theatre, capable of seating 3,000 persons. There is a canteen or buffet on the second floor, where liquors, wines and dishes will be supplied. There is also a cafe on the second floor, in the style of Delmonico's, except that fees are forbidden the waiters. There is a Turkish divan, where coffee a la Turk is furnished by genuine Mussulmans, with chibouk and narghileha. Below is the "cave," a bar-room for the multitude. The large saloons are bazaars, where fancy articles will be sold; and among other innovations are a cassino and a promenade for dancing between the acts, a Punch and Judy show, and a velocipede school. The establishment is unique in this country.

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ..... President.

WILLIAM M. COLE, ..... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ..... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid. This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

THE SENTINEL.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Gold closed in New York, last evening, at 1.35¼.

North Carolina Bonds: Old 64¼, New 62¼

At the Municipal election in Beaufort, last week, the following ticket was elected: Mayor, Abraham Congleton; Commissioners, A. C. Davis, Cicero Bell, Charles Bell, J. B. Davis. The Newbern Journal of Commerce says that this ticket is very appropriately headed by the "boy thief."

The former pupils of the late Rev. Simeon Colton, D. D., as an evidence of their appreciation of his character and labors, propose to raise an amount sufficient to erect a suitable monument to mark the place where his mortal remains repose.

The Editor of the Fayetteville Eagle accidentally stumbled into a hole on one of the streets of that town, the other night. Anxious to know how it came there, he ascertained that "Judge" M. A. Baker met the "Hon." Isham Swett, on his return from the Legislature, a few days ago, and they both bowed and scraped and hugged until they made the hole in the pavement.

The schools in several of the States for feeble minded children are meeting with great success; that in Philadelphia seems especially useful. One of the pupils, a beautiful little girl, recently recited a hymn before a large audience with great applause. When admitted to the institution she ran about lapping milk out of the same pan the watch-dog used, and in no instance did she conform to the habits of a human being. The patience, perseverance and kindness required to give this child a mind, can scarcely be imagined.

Greeley says that "these Georgians have learned of the election of Grant, and they have found out precisely what it means." Wonder if Greeley refers to the Ogeechee river outrages and the murders and thefts perpetrated continually by negroes throughout the State.

Senator Frelinghuysen thinks it "a poor return to the Government for rescuing their country from the rebels, for the loyal people of the South to claim compensation for their property destroyed or used during the conflict." This is hard on the "trooly loil" (for a consideration.)

The Albany Evening Journal says the "railroad dance" has already begun in the Legislature.—That dance is neither the can-can nor the can't-can't—but "all hands round"—to those who are in the ring. This reads very much as if it were expressly written for our loyal Legislature.

Reports from New Mexico represent trouble between the white and colored troops out there, in which several were killed. Commenting upon this and similar collisions elsewhere, the New York Herald says:

"If this state of things is continued the black man must in the end go to the wall, and then he will have reason to curse the demagogues who, under the pretence of being his friends, prove to be his worst enemies."

Michigan Republicans decide to stand by their Senator, Chandler, 78 to 20. Pennsylvania Republicans will select Mr. John Scott, who is a Cameron man, and is nominated by acclamation. In Minnesota Gov. Ramsey is almost certain of re-election, and in Delaware Senator Bayard is to be succeeded by his own son. In Indianapolis, the impressions are that Lieut-Gov. Cumback, a comparatively young man, who has served one term in the House of Representatives, will be selected to succeed Mr. Hendricks.

A New York boot-black has $6,000 in bank. He has "improved the shining hour" to some purpose.

By order of the government of Cuba the statues of Queen Isabella and other symbols of the Bourbon dynasty have been removed from the squares and public buildings.

Hogs running at large in the streets of Charleston, S. C., are killed and distributed among the poor.

The Virginia Committee will remain in permanent organization, keeping a quorum of their body in Washington until something is accomplished for the relief of Virginia.

The legal tender law frequently gives rise to trouble in California, where public opinion has never tolerated anything but gold. A man recently offered a greenback as a legal tender for his fare on the Central Pacific railroad. The conductor refused to receive it except at the current rates of discount, and finally put the man off the train by force, injuring him severely in doing so.

Senator Sherman wishes Congress to assume the business of granting charters and establishing Railroad lines within the limits of the States. Once establish the principle that all the Railroads of the country depend on the pleasure of Congress, and then all existing roads that fear rival lines, and all the projected roads that seek Congressional charters, will be in the lobbies of Congress, and that body will be controlled as the Legislature of North Carolina now is.

Our Minister to Turkey, in reply to a recent address of the Greek Chamber of Deputies, said "the expressions of interest on the part of the United States for the struggling Christians of Crete are but the utterances of those who would be faithless to the principles which made and preserve them a nation, did they refuse to extend the right hand of fellowship to others, wherever gathered on the earth's surface, who contend for the inestimable right to choose their own rulers." This sounds quite funny, in view of the late "rebellion."

STATE FINANCE.—We publish to-day a communication from the State Treasurer commended by Mr. Holden, showing the state of the finances, and a beggarly show it is. Poor honest old North Carolina is fast verging on the maelstrom of bankruptcy. Her fair fame is already sullied. The interest on her bonds which ought to have been paid in January, is still due and unpaid, and the Treasurer says the Treasury is nearly empty. Was the like ever known before? Could such a thing have occurred under the administration of Daniel Courts or Jonathan Worth, with a Conservative State government? Bankruptcy first, then loss of credit, then of character, and finally repudiation! Surely we have a prospect ahead that is gloomy enough to startle all who have any State pride or even financial interest at home. And yet with this showing the Legislature is continually voting large appropriations and the "Ring" closely watching the chances of grabbing the last vestige of the wreck of our former wealth. Char. Times.

Gov. VANCE will probably be in the city, in a few days, in attendance on the Supreme Court. We mention this, simply, for the benefit of little J. B., who may possibly desire to "shake hands."

Monogram kid gloves are the latest in New York.

SENTINEL OFFICE, Jan. 11, 1869.

Hon. Robert W. Lassiter:

DEAR SIR:—I learn, from the Reporter of the Sentinel, that you said, on the floor of the Senate Chamber, that I "had not answered your letter, fully and fairly."

In justice to myself I should state, that my letter, in answer to yours, was hastily written, and without that thought and reflection which the importance of the subject demanded. When the door-keeper of the Senate, Mr. Ball, delivered your letter, he was importunate for my reply, and he demanded it in writing. I declined giving an immediate answer, as Mr. Ball will testify.

I told Major Gales, an old Editor but a young man, in consultation, that I would answer in time for you to publish the correspondence in Monday's paper. The Major said that notice of Editors of a personal character, involving truth and honor, demanded always prompt and decisive answer and action, and, reading your letter a second time, he said it demanded a publication, and that the answer should be made instanter, and for Saturday's issue, which was then nearly ready for the press. Under this pressure and in great haste, I answered you.

Now, you charge me with an indirect, ambiguous, evasive answer. You are to blame, yourself, Mr. Lassiter. In your hurry to get your "squirrel and kildees" to market, you hurried me into the hasty reply. You should remember, too, the astonishment I must have felt at seeing Mr. J. T. Ball, the doorkeeper, who knocked down the holy bully Whitson, at Republican Headquarters, enter my office and announce "a note from Senator Lassiter, Sir." Such an announcement, in such a way, by such a man, was enough to unsettle the nerves of John Brown or Pilgrim Ashley. If the Court had made their attack upon Pilgrim Ashley, under the lead of the brawny-armed Ball, and he had delivered a few well-directed Whitson blows upon the pericranium of the pious Pilgrim, he (the Pilgrim) would have been quickly brought to a proper understanding of the power, if not of the dignity, of the Court.

Reading your letter lessened my agitation and alarm, but increased my astonishment and wonder, as to what you could mean. Knowing your fondness for fun, I thought it a prelude to some trick. Then I said, you are trying to hurry me into some further imprudent attack upon the subject matters of our important correspondence, and when I was fully committed in writing, you would employ Senator Winstead to bring action at law against me, before Judge Tourgee, for slanderous words spoken against your "squirrels and kildees."

I knew that Senator wanted no encouragement to bring the suit. You will remember, just before Judge Dick and Gov. Holden signed the ordinance of secession, the suit in Person county, in which Senator Winstead appeared for the Plaintiff, and John W. Norwood and myself for the Defendant. McKee and Blacknel were the parties.

Blacknel unintentionally, and without knowing it, scratched McKee's hand, and walked off fifty yards to get another drink. When he returned, McKee was showing his bleeding hand. Blacknel asked who hurt him? Being told he did it, he denied it, and said if he (McKee) could prove it by any living man, he'd give him a hundred dollars. McKee proved by several witnesses that Blacknel scratched his hand, and upon this, you remember, a suit was brought by McKee to recover the hundred dollars! We record it to the credit of your brother Winstead, that he had half a victory over us, at the trial term. The Jury not being able to agree, there was a mistrial, and the cause went over for trial at the next term. At the next term, you remember the trial, the talk, the excitement, not among the parties and the bar only, but throughout the county.

This time the father of the Bar had the victory. Winstead and McKee, crest-fallen and beaten, left the Court, as that able-bodied jurist, Judge Cloud, would say, taking nothing for their motion but a heavy bill of costs. Remembering McKee vs Blacknel, I feared you might be seeking to involve me in a law suit.

Now you say it is false; you have not sold your land. I have heard, time and again, that you have sold your land. I believe that you have. I have written to Oxford to get a report from the Register of Deeds as to whether or not you have sold, and the public will then see if I have made, as you say, a "false statement."

It has rained so, to-day, that I could not get to see Simon Hayes, a Granville man, whose name I have heretofore suppressed as one of my informants—suppressed, I say, for the fear of involving him in trouble.—Now keep that to yourself until I see Simon If he objects to having published what he did say, I can assure you that he did not mean to reflect upon you, your land, your squirrels or your kildees. He passes my office every day. The last time he passed, a little dog was following him. The dog ran after and barked at a carpet bagger. Simon bid him cease. I said not a word. Now when I see Simon, I will ask him and report to you his dog's name, for I don't know whether it be Bull or Bose!

Now it seems to me, Mr. Lassiter, that you are not the man to be offended at my editorial.

When you sold the land, with it you sold the squirrels and kildees. Of this fact I can satisfy any man, unless it be the Chairman of your Judiciary Committee, (and I could satisfy him, if he had not brought the suit of McKee vs. Blacknel,) Judge Watts, Judge Henry, Judge Cloud, Judge Jones or Judge Cannon.

"Land," says Blackstone, "hath, also, its legal signification—an indefinite extent upwards as well as downwards. Cujus est solum, ejus est usque ad coelum is the maxim of the law; upwards, therefore, no man may erect any building, or the like, to overhang another's land; and downwards, whatever is in a direct line, between the surface of any land and the center of the earth, belongs to the owner of the surface, as in every day's experience in mining countries. So the word "land" includes not only the face of the earth, but every thing under it or over it. And, therefore, if a man sells his lands, he sells thereby all his mines of metal and other fossils, his woods, his waters, and his houses, as well as his fields and meadows"—and let me add, Mr. Lassiter, his squirrels and his kildees!

The Latin maxim, "Cujus est solum ejus est usque ad coelum," I now translate, for the benefit of the Lieutenant Governor, who, as a boy, was as little apt at Latin, as he now is at Parliamentary law. The maxim being freely rendered is: Who sells his land sells as high as heaven, as deep as hell, including mines, metals, meadows, fossils, fields, woods, squirrels, and kildees!

Now, Senator, adieu, until I see Simon, and learn the name of his dog.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr.

Legislature of North Carolina.

MONDAY, Jan. 11, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Beasley presented a report from the Commissioners of Bertie county. Referred to the Committee on Townships.

NOTICE OF BILLS.

By Mr. Hayes: Of a bill in favor of Reuben King, late Sheriff of Robeson, when said Sheriff settles with the County Treasurer.

By Mr. White: Of a bill providing for the registration of conveyances.

By Mr. Colgrove: Of a bill to charter a branch Road from some point on the Wilmington and Tarboro' Railroad to some point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Bellamy: A bill to prevent obstruction to the passage of fish up Town Creek. Referred to the Committee on Fisheries.

By Mr. Cook: A bill to establish a standard weight of fish. Referred to the Committee on Fisheries.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to incorporate Coble Lodge passed.

Bill to incorporate Eureka Lodge passed.

Bill to incorporate Beaver Dam Lodge passed.

Bill to incorporate Dennis' Rock Lodge passed.

Bill making an appropriation of $3,800 to provide for securing the Insane Asylum against fire passed.

Bill to prevent the felling of timber, or otherwise obstructing Rockfish Creek, passed.

Bill to amend an act concerning the government of counties, ratified the 14th day of August, 1868, after some debate, was amended, on motion of Mr Love, and passed.

Resolution authorizing the Treasurer of the State to pay the necessary expenses incurred by witnesses summoned before the Committee on Bribery:

On motion of Mr. Sweet, it was amended by confining the travelling expenses within the limits of the State.

Mr. Rich offered a substitute, which provides that said witnesses shall receive the same pay as provided for witnesses summoned before the Circuit Court of the United States, and if said witnesses are not material, and reside without the limits of the State, they shall receive no compensation whatever.

Mr. Sweet said that there were three objections to this substitute, which ought to convince Senators that it should not be adopted: 1st. It provides that only material witnesses shall receive any compensation whatever; 2ndly, It provides that those witnesses who may reside out of the State, shall receive no pay; after having been compelled to attend here, they are unjustly compelled to defray their own expenses, and, thirdly, he thought the provision entirely inadequate to defray the necessary and actual expenses. He hoped the substitute would be voted down.

Mr. Rich said he thought the Senator had had enough experience, in conferring great powers into the hands of Committees, and cited, as an instance, the powers granted the Committee to locate a Penitentiary. He was opposed to giving this Committee power to summon witnesses from any place they may choose, and probably, when they may arrive, they may know nothing. With this power they can saddle a debt of $100,000 on the State, without accomplishing anything, and the Democratic party will say "Republicans are responsible for it, turn them out and put Democrats in their places." He hoped the substitute would be adopted.

Mr. Robbins said that there were some portions of the substitute that he was in favor of. The pay allowed witnesses summoned by the Federal Court he thought sufficient. He was in favor of conducting the investigation as economically as possible, but he was opposed to the word "material." It should be stricken out. To say that it depends on what manner a witness shall testify, whether he shall receive pay or not, is a dangerous precedent to be set.

Mr. Graham said he did not know what amount was allowed witnesses summoned to appear at the Federal Court, but he was of the impression that the resolution, offered by Senator Sweet, was much the cheapest plan. The Legislature having established this Committee, it is but just and right that persons, who are compelled to leave their business to appear before this Committee, should have their actual and necessary expenses paid.

Mr. Blythe said it occurred to his mind that considerable expense could be avoided by securing written affidavits, thereby saving the expense of bringing witnesses a great distance at an expense to the State.—The charge has been made on this floor by a Senator, that he could put his finger on the man who had sold his vote for dollars and cents. If he can do it, why go to the expense of summoning so many witnesses? Why don't the Senator put his finger on the man now?

Mr. Sweet said he could prove what he had asserted in five minutes, but the Committee desired to make but one report and that should be full and satisfactory, and it was the intention of the Committee, if possible, to secure additional facts, which they expected to do.

Mr. Barrow said he had always been opposed to smelling Committees, and should have voted against the proposition to raise this Committee, but he asked at the time who made the charges of corruption and a respectable Senator on this floor had stated that he knew the fact that dollars and cents had been paid for votes. Now, sir, the honor of the General Assembly is at stake until this charge is cleared up, and if the expenses of the investigation should reach $500,000, it should be granted and nothing should be done which would even have the appearance of trammeling the Committee in this investigation. He regretted that the substitute had been offered, and hoped it would be withdrawn, in order to allow the Committee to pursue their own course. It was right and just that the witnesses summoned should have their necessary expenses paid.

On motion of Mr. Cook, the previous question was called.

Mr. Rich's substitute was lost by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Bellamy, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Etheridge, Eppes, colored, Galloway, colored, Hayes, Lassiter, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Purdie, Rich, Richardson, Smith, and Stephens.—17.

NAYS—Messrs. Barrow, Barnes, Beasley, Beall, Beeman, Eaves, Forkner, Graham, Harrington, Legg, Lindsay, Long, Love, Melchor, Osborne, Respass, Robbins, Scott, Shaffner, Sweet, Welker, White, Wynne, Winstead and Wilson—25.

And Mr. Sweet's resolution was adopted by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Barrow, Barnes, Beasley, Beall, Beeman, Eaves, Etheridge, Forkner, Graham, Lassiter, Lindsay, Long, Love, Melchor, Osborne, Purdie, Respass, Robbins, Scott, Shaffner, Sweet, Welker, White, Wynne, Winstead and Wilson—26.

NAYS—Messrs. Bellamy, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes, colored, Galloway, colored, Hayes, Harrington, Moore, of Carteret, Rich, Richardson, Smith and Stephens.—14.

CALENDAR.

The resolution proposing to raise a Joint Committee to investigate the facts connected with the present system of management of the North Carolina Railroad, after some discussion, on motion of Mr. Welker, was postponed until Thursday next, at twelve o'clock.

Bill to transfer the cases on the docket of the Criminal Court of Craven to the Superior Court passed its second reading.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a resolution providing for an office for the Superintendent of Public Instruction, on the third floor of the Capitol.

On motion of Mr. Barrow, the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings,—Messrs. Bellamy, Hayes, Rich and Stephens voting in the negative. Mr. Smith was excused from voting by his request.

Leave of absence was granted Messrs. Cook, Davis and Rich.

The Senate branch of the Committee to investigate the affairs of the Banks, in which the State has stock, are Messrs. Respass and Hayes.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Jan. 11, 1869.

House called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of Chatham, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Vest presented the report of the commissioners of his county. Referred.

Mr. Hendricks presented a memorial from the citizens of Surry county. Referred.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Mr. Dixon, from the Committee on Claims, reported favorably upon the bill in favor of F. M. Pittman. Placed on Calendar.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Ellington: A resolution that all bills and resolutions of this House be printed in small pica type, with great primer lines between each line, and printed on flat-cap. Lies over.

By Mr. Blair: A joint resolution in regard to bills submitted by the Code Commission. Lies over.

BILLS.

By Mr. Sinclair: A bill in regard to the payment of debts. [This bill provides that every claim to recover money shall be barred in two years after the cause of action accrues, and no promise shall revive the same or take it out of the statute, unless it be made in writing with a specific promise to pay a specified sum and made after the passage of this act.] Referred.

By Mr. Candler: A bill to change the time of holding Courts in the 12th Judicial District. Referred.

J. H. Harris, (colored,) from the Committee on Proposition and Grievances, reported a bill in favor of Mark Williams, of Wake County. Lies over.

CALENDAR.

On motion of Mr. Blair, the rules were suspended, and his resolution in regard to bills submitted by the Code Commissioners was taken up and adopted.

House bill No. 73, in relative to Lake Phelps, was next reached and passed its second reading.

The bill incorporating the Jonesville Lodge, No. 227, A. F. M., in Yadkin county, was taken up, and passed its 3rd. reading.

House bill No. 143, incorporating Ice Lodge, A. Y. M., at Taylorsville, Alexander county, was taken up and passed its third reading.

The bill incorporating Atlantic Lodge, No. 238, Currituck Co., was next reached and passed its second reading.

House bill No. 75, in regard to modifying the stay law, (unfavorably reported upon by Committee:)

Mr. Seymour moved that the report be concurred in.

Mr. Ellington moved to postpone the bill, until it could be printed.

This elicited quite a spicy debate.

Mr. Hodnett hoped the report of the Committee would be concurred in. He opposed, as a principle, all stay laws, but he thought, that now, as the law was in force, it would be disastrous to repeal it. He wanted it to go out that the State would neither decrease or increase the operations of that law. He knew that some were building now on the hope that this Assembly would stay debts contracted since the close of the war.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (colored,) moved to postpone for two weeks.

Mr. Stilley argued for sometime in favor of the postponement. Mr. Ferebee moved the indefinite postponement of the bill, and upon that motion called the yeas and nays. The call was sustained.

Pending further action in this matter, the hour for the special order, to-wit: The several Railroad bills reported by the Internal Improvement Committee, arrived.

Mr. Ladin then moved to postpone the consideration of them until Tuesday, the 19th.

Mr. Ellis moved to indefinitely postpone all those bills.

Mr. E. entered into an able argument in relation to the various Railroad measures that are now pending, which will be published shortly.

Mr. E. had been speaking a short time, when Mr. Downing arose to a point of order, that the motion to indefinitely postpone was not debatable.

The Speaker refused to sustain the point, when,

Mr. Downing appealed from the decision, and the House sustained the Chair.

Mr. Ellis resumed, and in the course of his remarks, said that the Penitentiary affair had swindled the State out of $100,000, and was proceeding with his speech, when,

Mr. Downing came to his seat and asked if the gentleman used that language in regard to the Penitentiary matter. He was a member of that Committee.

Mr. Ellis replied that such was his opinion.

Mr. Downing: Then, sir, I call the gentleman to order. He has no right to reflect upon the character of any member.

Mr. Ellis said he mentioned this affair, merely as one of the reasons of his voting against these Railroad measures.

Mr. Ellis continued, when,

Mr. Ladin arose to a point of order, saying that, under the ruling of the Chair, the motion to indefinitely postpone was debatable only to a limited extent. Was not this an elaborate argument?

The Chair stated that the gentleman from Catawba (Mr. Ellis,) was only giving his reasons why he opposed these Railroad measures, and the debate would only fairly begin when the gentleman was replied to. As yet there was no debate, &c.

Mr. Ellis then concluded without further interruption.

Mr. Durham then arose to a point of order in regard to both the motion of Mr. Estes to indefinitely postpone, and Mr. Ladin's motion to postpone until the 19th inst., saying that each of the bills must be read, separately, at least by their titles, before such motions could be made. As yet, none of them were properly before the House.

The Chair sustained the point.

The Clerk then read the title of the bill to consolidate the North Carolina Railroad and the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad.

Mr. Ellis renewed his motion to indefinitely postpone, and Mr. Ladin his motion to postpone until Tuesday, the 19th inst., and make it the special order at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Ellis' motion was rejected and Mr. Ladin's adopted.

The following bills went through the same course and were disposed of in a like manner, to-wit:

Bill to amend the charter of the Oxford branch of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad; Bills to amend the charters of the Atlantic, Ohio and Tennessee Railroad and the Williamston and Tarboro Railroad; Bill to amend the charter of the Western N. C. R R, and the bill to separate and divide the Eastern and Western divisions of the Wilmington and Charlotte Railroad.

The special order for this hour, "The bill to incorporate the North Carolina Dental Association," was, on motion, postponed for two weeks.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill to modify the stay law was resumed.

[While the Clerk was looking for the bill, Mr. Welch arose to a question of privilege. He said that, in looking over the certified copy of the bill recently passed by this Legislature to re-enact and confirm the issue of bonds to certain Railroad Companies in the Secretary of State's office, he found a mistake had been made in regard to the specific tax to be levied for the payment of the interest on the bonds appropriated to the Western N. C. R. R. The bill was made to levy a tax of 1.20 of one per cent. on the taxable property of the State, while it should be 1 8 of one per cent., as it appears in the original bill. He moved that the Committee on Enrollment proceed to the Secretary's office and make the necessary correction. Carried.]

The Clerk then read the bill modifying the stay law.

The question recurred upon Mr. Ferebee's motion to postpone indefinitely.

The yeas and nays having been previously ordered, the roll was called and the motion prevailed by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Allison, Armstrong, Ashworth, Banner, Blair, Boddie, Bowman, Candler, Cherry, colored, Clayton, of Transylvania, Davidson, Downing, Ellis, Ferebee, Gahagan, Gibson, Gilbert, Graham, Green, Grier, Gunter, Hawkins, Hendricks, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodnett, Huffman, Horney, Humphries, Jarvis, Justus, of Randolph, Justice, of Rutherford, Leary, colored, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Malone, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moring, Moore, Nicholson, Pearson, Proctor, Proffitt, Robinson, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Sinclair, Smith, of Wayne, Stanton, Stevens, Stilley, Sykes, colored, Thompson, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, Welch, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Sampson, and Wiswall—63.

NAYS—Messrs. Ames, Carson, Cawthorn, colored, Dixon, Estes, Foster, Harris, of Wake, colored, Hayes, colored, Hudgings, Ingram, Kelly, of Moore, Matheson, Morris, colored, Robbins, colored, Simonds, Snipes, Sweat, colored, Wilkie, and Williamson—19.

A message was received from the Senate, transmitting the several House bills and resolutions which had passed that body to-day. They were ordered to be enrolled.

By consent, Mr. —— introduced a resolution instructing the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings to provide the Auditor with a suitable office.

On motion the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

On motion the House then adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of sarsaparilla and its curative virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary: it does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the taint, even in those whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous system, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by other extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of noxious matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our price is gratified by the acknowledgements we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, when formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with its unalloyed character of the aromatic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and resolvative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac-simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as its trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have prec

The next session of Mr. Jno. T. Womble's English and Classical School will commence on Friday, the 15th. inst.

BISHOP ATKINSON.—This distinguished Divine will visit this city the latter part of the present week and preach in Christ Church on Sunday next. He will also administer the Rite of Confirmation,—time to be hereafter announced.

NOTICE.—There will be a meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, at the Mayor's Office, this evening, at 7 o'clock, for the election of officers.

We learn that the Rev. Mr. Hiden, of Wilmington, who has been preaching, with very great acceptance in the Baptist Church, during the past week, proposes to re-visit Raleigh, at an early day, to entertain our people with some of his admirable lectures and readings. From what the Wilmington papers say of his powers, our citizens may expect a rich treat, if he comes, for he is a speaker, not only of great originality of thought and expression, but a humorist of rare gifts.

THE dignified and learned body, called the City Council, acted with remarkable judgment in selecting the Standard as the vehicle for the promulgation of their proceedings. They wanted them, as a matter of course, and very commendably, where their constituents would see them,—the non tax paying gentlemen of African descent.—Bro. Pepper will please join in singing "old Jno. Brown's soul, &c.," and Bro. Whitson will hand round the hat!

MARRIED.—A friend in New York writes us, that on Tuesday evening last, at the Church of the Transfiguration in that City, Gen. ROBERT F. HOKE, of North Carolina, was united in marriage to Miss LILLIE VAN WYCK, of South Carolina. The ceremony was performed by the Rector of the Church, the Rev. Dr. Houghton, in the presence of a large party of invited relatives and friends of the happy couple, many of them from the Southern States. Gen. Hoke was a gallant soldier in the Confederate army, which he entered at the beginning of the war as a Lieutenant in the Bethel Regiment, and in which he served with marked distinction throughout the war, from the battle of Bethel to the final surrender. "None but the brave deserve the fair," but happy he who gets his deserts, as Gen. Hope has, for assuredly so lovely and bright and accomplished a bride is rarely seen. May their future be as full of bliss as ever falls to the lot of mortals!

The bridegroom and bride departed for the South during the same evening.

THEATRE.—Fanchon went off charmingly, last night, to a good audience, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.—Mazeppa will be repeated to-night, and will draw a full house, we doubt not.

THE SIAMESE TWINS.—The Liverpool papers of the 21st ultimo announces the arrival there of the Siamese twins. The Liverpool Post says:

"After consulting with the most eminent surgeons of Edinburgh, they propose making a tour of the United Kingdom for the purpose of retrieving their fortunes, having lost all their property through the late American war, and will then proceed to Paris to have a surgical operation performed, which they have at last made up their minds to submit to."

'THE ACT TO PROVIDE FOR A SYSTEM OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, &C., &C."

We have heretofore spoken of this bill as the "book" of 42 pages. It might be called "Pilgrim's Progress," under the march of the "new civilization."

Section 34 of the bill declares that:

"Each City, Town and Township shall make all needful provisions and arrangements concerning habitual truants, and also concerning children between the ages of eight and eighteen years, wandering about in the streets or public places having no lawful occupation or business, not attending school and growing up in ignorance, and shall also make all such by laws respecting such children, as shall be deemed most conducive to their welfare and to good order; and there shall be annexed to such by-laws suitable penalties not exceeding twenty dollars for any one breach; Provided, That said by-laws shall be approved by the Superior Court sitting in any county in the State."

Under this clause can be revived all the punishments inflicted upon children at Do-the-boys-Hall. Yes, and the Pilgrim may give the little urchins soup made of tallow, but he will not do that; he may flog them not exceeding twenty dollars. This clause violates clearly the Constitution, by authorizing cruel and unusual punishments. Fining a vagabond child, eight years old, twenty dollars! Old Squeers, himself, never inflicted such punishment or imposed such penalties.

In lines 53 and 54 of Section 42, the power is given "to exclude from school, and from school libraries, all books, tracts, papers, or catechisms of a sectarian character.—" This looks like speculating in theology. When a boy, we were instructed in the Catechism of the Episcopal Church, by Bishop Green. We studied the shorter Catechism under the late Dr. Alexander Wilson, a pious, learned and good man, whose death was a loss to literature and the State. We have read the Catechism used by the Methodists and Baptists, and we see no evil in them. But, good as they are, dear as they are to all Christian people in North Carolina, they may be in the way of the establishment of what New England calls a "liberal Christianity." We are told that Pilgrim Ashley is a Congregationalist—one of your Harriet Beecher Stowe men.

We protest against the exclusion of all catechisms from our schools, and placing the schools under a Congregationalist Yankee, of whom we know nothing, except his following the army and teaching a negro school in Wilmington.

Hear what one of the most learned of the pilgrim preachers and teachers says of himself: "I was born in a Protestant community, of Protestant parents, and was brought up, so far as I was brought up at all, a Presbyterian. At the age of twenty-one, I passed from Presbyterianism to what is sometimes called Liberal Christianity, to which I remained attached, at first under the form of Universalism, afterwards under that of Unitarianism, till the age of 41, when I had the happiness of being received into the Catholic Church. Here is the sum total of my religious changes. I no doubt experienced difficulties in defending the doctrines I professed, and I shifted my ground of defence more than once, but not the doctrines themselves. I was during many years, no doubt, a Radical and a Socialist, but both after a fashion of my own."

The conclusion of the bill does not sound like the Pilgrim, as he, we think, left to himself, would have concluded, by assuring the General Assembly of his profound and lively gratitude for their kind encouragement and uniform support of his labors in the cause of Socialism and Radicalism!

For the Sentinel.

PUNISHMENT OF JUDGES.

Mr. Editor:—In your capital and spirited review of "Judge" Tourgee and the Grand Jury of Orange, you have, no doubt inadvertently, penned and published a sentence that may do harm, by tending to confirm an error that too extensively prevails. It is commonly believed that Judges are a privileged class, and occupy so exalted a position as to be above the reach of punishment. This, however, is a great mistake and should be corrected as well for the people's, as the Judges', sakes.

Your article reads: "Your Honor will find, before you ride another circuit, that judicial interference in politics and even judicial dereliction of duty, while they may be exempt from punishment, have no exemption from presentment."

Judges are no more exempt from punishment than the humblest citizen in the land. They, like all the rest of us, are liable to presentment, indictment and to the penalties affixed to the offences, of which they may be adjudged guilty, whether committed as individuals or as Judges. No grade of officer is exempt from the supervision of the Grand Jury, and the Judge, as well as the Clerk, and the Sheriff, the Attorney at Law, the Justices of the Peace, and the Constables, are all alike subjected to the searching eye of the grand inquest. For mere omissions of duty, some of these officers have been indicted and punished; and it is not for a moment to be supposed, that we have placed over us a class of Magnates, who are not bound by the laws; who may accept office and the salary and not perform the duties; who may themselves commit any and every dereliction of duty, any malpractice or corruption of office, with impunity, and yet sit in judgment upon others charged with similar offences.—Some suppose they can only be reached by impeachment; but this is erroneous. Impeachment is only intended to supply a punishment which an ordinary Court in general may not inflict; and that is removal from office. This judgment could not be rendered against a high judicial officer even if found guilty of larceny or a capital felony. It is, however, supplied by impeachment; and the Constitution provides expressly, that impeachment shall not exempt the party from indictment and punishment according to law.

Now it is possible, in the cases cited by you, that Judge Tourgee may be liable to punishment, for not holding the court in Orange and trying the civil causes, according to law; and it is also possible, that he is liable for interfering with the Grand Jury in Caswell, because he did not like their looks. He certainly has rendered himself, prima facie, obnoxious to the laws; what his defence may be no one knows. Perhaps he might justify his conduct before the Jury, but he is prohibited from becoming a Judge in his own case. His guilt or innocence of any prima facie charge can only be determined by a jury, and to that end he is subjected to presentment and indictment. If presented in a regular way, the Solicitor is in duty bound to send the bill. If sent and returned a "true bill," the fact should be certified to the Governor, whose duty it is, under such circumstances (Art. 4, Sec. 14) to commission some other Judge to hold the Court, and sit upon the presentment, the indictment or trial. If the Judge riding the circuit is himself presented, and attempts in any way to suppress or smother the presentment, so as to screen himself from its effects, or otherwise interferes with the indictment in its progress, he thereby commits so gross a perversion of justice, and such malpractice or corruption in office, as of themselves subject him to not only indictment but impeachment.

Our Judges in the past have demeaned themselves so well, and discharged with fidelity their duties according to their ability, as to provoke no inquiry as to judicial liability. They have not hitherto been summoned to the Bar to answer for their delinquencies, but it was not because they might not have been, had justice required it. It is truly to be hoped, and for this purpose I write, that the future conduct of our Judges may be governed by such circumspection, as not to disturb the long indulged slumber of our laws.

Correct then, Mr. Editor, your article which serves to mislead; and loudly proclaim it to the Bench, as well as the people, that no one stands above the law; but that for every corruption and malpractice, and for every misdemeanor in office, even the Judges themselves are amenable to indictment and punishment.

TRUTH.

Assignee's Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

THE LAND BELONGING to Dr. M. T. Ponton will be offered at public sale, by his assignee in bankruptcy on THURSDAY, the 14th of January next at 11 o'clock A. M.

The sale will take place at the residence of Dr. Ponton the land will be put up, without reserve, to the highest bidder, for CASH, and no postponement will be made.

The land contains about sixteen hundred acres, is situated near the town of Halifax, N. C., on Great and Little Quankey Creeks and partly on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

The soil is naturally free and fertile, but has been much reduced by bad tillage. There are large quantities of marl on some of the land, and all of it can be easily improved and made good Corn and Cotton land. Much of it is well adapted to truck farming, and nearly the whole of it is equal to any in America for the cultivation of the grape. To any person who desires to invest capital in "Grape Culture," no better opportunity can be offered.

The land will be sold in several separate tracts, in one of which there is the best mill site in Halifax county, affording an inexhaustible supply of water power, with building stone sufficient for the erection of dams and mills.

Dr. Ponton will take pleasure in guiding persons over the land, who may wish to inspect it with a view to purchase.

JOHN J. LONG, Assignee.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $230,949.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

For the Sentinel.

[The following lines, composed by a member of the North Carolina bar, have never before appeared in print. They are copied from memory by a friend of the author to whom he gave the manuscript, which has since been lost. Deeming them worthy of preservation, I offer them to you for publication in the Sentinel. The author, a son of a former Judge of the Supreme Court, might have rivalled the deservedly high reputation of his father, if he had not too early abandoned his profession.—WARREN.]

THE FIRESIDE CIRCLE.

When loud how'ls the tempest and fierce rolls the storm,
And the wild winds of winter are winged to deform,
When a mantle of snow clasps the once blooming earth,
How bright are the joys that surround the dear hearth!
The bleak winds may scatter the blossoms away,
But the fireside circle is cheerful and gay.

There tottering age with its white locks is seen
Recounting old stories when lifetime was green,
There the pleased eye of boyhood past glories can see,
And infancy sports round its grandsire's knee,
And the fond mother looks, with a smile and a tear,
On the fireside circle, so precious and dear.

And there the glad lover, when day tasks are done,
May seek at the hearth-stone his heart's chosen one;
May clasp the fond hand that ere long is to bind
Yet closer the chains that have linked them in mind,
And hail the bright smile that no clouds ever dim,
Which shall hallow the fireside circle for him.

And there the lone wanderer far o'er the main,
Comes back to the fondly loved circle again.
Like a dove to its ark, from the ocean's rude breast,
He flies to that haven of blessing and rest;
No longer he hears the wild sea's sullen roar,
For the fireside circle hath claimed him once more,

The play-ground of children that meet in their mirth,
The best, dearest spot for old age upon earth,
The tryst place of lovers—the mother's fond shrine,
The seaman's first hail as he quits the blue brine,
The one ready altar devotion upreares,
Is the fireside circle three closer endears!

VOLCK'S EQUESTRIAN STATUE OF GEN. LEE.—At the art gallery of Messrs. Butler & Perrigo, on Charles street, Baltimore, there is now to be seen an equestrian statuette of Gen. Robert E. Lee, cast in bronze and wrought out on a scale that has enabled the sculptor, Mr. Volck, to develop the merits of this work with the best possible effect. Those merits are certainly very great. The figure of the General has been well and thoughtfully studied, and is at once easy and natural. The head is broad and massive, and the expression of the face calm and dignified, combined with an undefinable suggestion of latent power. The likeness, too, is said to be an excellent one. The horse on which the great Southern soldier is seated, was also modeled from the life, and is rendered with much spirit and force.

The object of Mr. Volck in placing this work on exhibition is to dispose of it by raffle, putting the number of tickets at one hundred and fifty, and the price at five dollars a ticket. The object is a tempting one, the prize valuable, apart from the associations connected with it, and the cost to those who desire to join the venture quite small. Quite a number of chances have already been taken. Mr. Volck is a Baltimore artist, and has suffered heavily by his devotion to a cause which has ruined so many others, and has left behind it a crowd of mournful memories. The colossal statue of Stonewall Jackson, which he was commissioned to undertake, still remains on his hands at Munich, in consequence of the reverses experienced by the Southern people. The fine equestrian statuette of Gen. Lee now under notice is a recent production, and we should be glad to learn that it had become the property of one of our citizens. Baltimore Gazette.

A pleasant anecdote is told of Partridge, the celebrated almanac-maker. In travelling on horseback into the country, he stopped for a dinner at an inn; and afterward called for his horse, that he might reach the next town, where he intended to sleep. "If you would take my advice, sir, said the hostler, as he was about to mount his horse, "you will stay where you are for the night, as you will surely be overtaken by a pelting rain." "Nonsense nonsense," said the almanac-maker. "There is sixpence for you, my honest fellow, and good afternoon to you." He proceeded on his journey; and sure enough, he was well drenched in a heavy shower. Partridge was struck with the man's prediction; and being always intent on the interest of his almanac, he rode back on the instant, and was received by the hostler with a broad grin. "Well, sir, you see I was right, after all." "Yes, my lad, you have been so, and here is a crown for you; but I give it to you on consideration that you tell me how you knew of this rain." "To be sure, sir," replied the man. "Why, the truth is, we have an almanac in our house, called Partridge's Almanac; and the fellow is such a notorious liar that whenever he promises us fine days, we always know that it will be the direct contrary. Now, your Honor, this day, this day, the 21st. of June, is put down in our almanac in doors as 'settled fine weather; no rain.' I looked at that before I brought your Honor's horse out, and so was enabled to put you on guard."

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable
